Credit Recovery Program

Summer 2020

STAY ON TRACK FOR GRADUATION!

Any student may be eligible to recover or earn credit for a course. Students in the credit recovery program will complete all assignments at home (available 24/7 via a computer with internet access). The online curriculum is highly interactive with audio and video tracks and allows students to move quickly through material previously mastered and focus time on learning more difficult concepts.

- Cost: $50 each Credit Recovery course (fee waived when appropriate – see Principal)
- When: begins June 8, 2020 and must be completed by July 2, 2020
- Where: all course work is virtual and can be completed anywhere with internet access

Rules and Information

- ✓ Registration for summer classes closes on June 15, 2020 at 3:00 pm.
- ✓ Students may check out a tablet through the Credit Recovery Coordinator. The terms of the student AUP apply to the use of any tablet checked out. The tablet must be returned at the end of the Summer School session.
- ✓ Only students with a final grade of 50 or above are eligible for Credit Recovery. Students with a final average below 50 must re-take the course to earn credit.
- ✓ A Credit Recovery Coordinator will be available to assist students from 9:00 am until 1:00 pm, Monday through Thursday from June 8 through July 2, 2020.
- ✓ All fees are non-refundable regardless of student attendance and/or progress.
- ✓ To receive credit, students must start and finish the course within the Summer Session. There is no credit given for partially completed courses.
- ✓ Upon successful completion of the Credit Recovery course, a separate grade of “P” will be added to the student’s academic history (transcript) with a notation that the final grade was earned as a result of Credit Recovery.

Bring this completed Registration Form and fee to the bookkeeper to register

Summer School Registration
